Excerpt: . will not fail to write you regular accounts of all your acquaintance. Mr. Strickland has had a prodigy of good fortune befallen him, which, I suppose, you have heard of. My little commission is hardly worth speaking of; if you have not already laid out that small sum in St . Cloud ware, I had rather have it in plain lutestring of any color. Lady Stafford desires you would buy one suit of minunet for head and ruffles at Boileau s. LETTER VII. I can not enough thank you, my dear sister, for the trouble you give yourself in my affairs, though I am still so unhappy to find your care very ineffectual. I have actually in my present possession a formal letter directed to Mr. W to acquaint him with the whole business. You may imagine the inevitable eternal misfortunes it would...
