Boats from Chicago and Cleveland make a pleasant way of getting to Petoskey. . THE Toledo Dental Society entertained the Washtenaw Dental Society Friday, May 8, in a most delightful way. A large part of the day was spent in visiting the various industrial enterprises of the city. At five o'clock the venerable and highly-esteemed Dr. C. H. Harroun entertained the society with a paper on personal reminiscences. after which a sumptuous banquet was served in the large dining-room of the famous Boody House. The delegation was then escorted to the theater to enjoy a Night Out. When we arrived home the next day we had a feeling that there were lots of good people in this world, and life was really worth living. The best of it is that the Toledo dentists didnt seem to think they were doing enough for their guests. Just how much more they are capable of doing we dont know, but we thought about as much good fellowship was crowded into those few hours as they were capable of holding. INDENTS. l1P.
