This report shows that there is an ever-increasing amount of business coming before the office; that this business has been disposed of expeditiously and in a manner consistent with the best interests of the State, and that such matters as are now pending are being hastened to a determination as rapidly as the circumstances of each case will permit. The work of the office may be roughly divided into three separate departments; namely, civil litigation, criminal appeals, and opinions. At the date of the last biennial report of my able predecessor, there were pending before the office, in various stages, one hundred and one civil actions, exclusive of so-called leave to sue cases. Subsequent to that report there have come into the office seventy-two new cases, and my report now transmitted to you, shows one hundred and three civil cases now pending; in other words, there is constantly before and engaging the attention of the office at least one hundred civil suits. In addition to the detailed report appended hereto, I beg to make brief mention of a few of the more important civil matters which have claimed my attention. Civil Litigation. Coyote Scalp Cases. The Legislature of 1903 made appropriations to pay the judgments obtained against the State in suits commenced under the Act of March 23, 1901, such suits arising out of claims against the State under an Act of March 31, 1891, fixing a...
