IN THE HEART OF TANZANIA: A MISSIONARY WRITES ABOUT HIS WORK AND EXPERIENCES IN TANZANIA

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It is a fascinating story of a missionary in the exotic yet at times dangerous country of Tanzania. The author, in over 300 pages, describes his experiences of 12 years of work and life in Africa. The book comprises descriptions of many aspects of daily life of the local people and encounters with nature, sometimes charming, others rather dangerous. Mainly, it is a document how the author tried to fulfill his missionary and Salvatorian vocation. (From the periodical Salvator published by Salvatorian Fathers in Cracow, Poland) Dear Father Joseph, Thank you for giving me the honor of reading the manuscript of your missionary works in Africa. I knew missionaries performed many various functions in addition to God's teaching ; you opened up my eyes as to the extent of a missionary's involvement. Truly, you were sent by God to do his work. (Mrs. Trudy Witkoski from Houston, TX) Dear Fr. Joseph, I would like to thank you for writing down these remembrances. The book fascinated both my family and me greatly. It can be read at just one sitting. It definitely brought us closer to the life of missionaries. It presented the hardship of the lives which people in Africa lead: the extreme conditions you have to deal with on an everyday basis, such as climatic challenges, the lack of water, and many other problems. How important is the role of missionaries! You have to be not only priests, but also teachers and doctors; you have to know a little of everything from every field of work. For example, how helpful your knowledge of mechanics turned out to be. (Mrs. Maria Kopec from Myslowice, Poland)...
