

Play Songs: From the Song Series

By Alys E Bentley

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the INTRODUCTION. THE songs chosen for the earliest musical expression of the child, should be those that in themselves have the power to use the whole child. The singing of children in the kindergarten, and of those in the first and second grades, should not be merely imitative. With songs that are based upon fundamental rhythms, and that lie within the range of the child s interest and experience, the expression from the very first will be individual. Given a chance to respond with his whole self, the average child will discover to you a voice full, free, and alive with color and quality.v The proposition briefly stated is this: Establish continuity of breath: this comes in proportion as we remove the inhibiting influences of physical obstruction and self-consciousness. Develop the singing and speaking voice that there may be full and unembarrassed expression. Do this by coordination of the big muscles with vocal expression. Singing, so taught that it would express the life of the child in song, might well be a basic subject in the curriculum...
