Reviews

This pdf might be well worth a study, and a lot better than other. It really is simplistic but excitement inside the fifty percent in the book. Its been printed in an exceedingly straightforward way which is just after i finished reading this ebook through which really modified me, modify the way i believe. (Derick Brekke)

Skyhorse Publishing. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Learning at Home PreK-3: Homework Activities That Engage Children and Families, Ann C Barbour, Families play a critical role in helping young children develop a solid academic foundation and love of learning. Numerous examples have proven time and again that children's learning behavior is strongest when reinforced with activities, social interactions, and play. In "Learning at Home, PreK-3," Ann Barbour stresses the importance of getting parents involved with their children's education through engaging homework activities. Bursting with activities to foster learning on many levels, this book also offers ideas for teachers on how to include parents in their children's education. Discover hundreds of fun activities designed to: Relate learning directly to children's own experiencesInclude shared reading experiences, family projects, and gamesIntegrate developmental and content areas, including language and literacy, mathematics, science, and the creative artsPromote literacy learning in homes where English is not the primary languageAnd more This book gives teachers the tools to reach out to families and provides parents with the guidance to reinforce learning both in school and at home. Complete with tips on how to encourage parent involvement, data to support family commitment to the child's education, and activities that young students will enjoy doing at home with their families, "Learning at Home" is a fantastic resource to promote the joy of learning at home.
