We may add that Fulvia was not a woman to bear that a Concubine should receive the honours due to the lawful wife, during her husband's progress. She was too haughty to follow, in a separate coach, the litter of the favorite Cytheris. Let us confirm the conjecture of Bosius and Lipfius. If it had been said in the Letter to Atticus, Cytberidem portal alteram uxorem, there would have been nothing but what would agree with other expressions which are to be met with in the second Philippic. At etiam quadam loco facet us effe vo-t of your Actress: what! do I bely you How wretched is it that you cannot deny what is most disgraceful to confess! If you were not ashamed of behaving so before the municipal towns, did not your veteran troops make you blush For what soldier was there who did not...
